CHAIRPERSON'S FOREWORD

On the 29th of August, 2019, the Registrar of Political Parties submitted the Political Parties (Registration) Regulations, 2019 and the Political Parties (Funding) Regulations, 2019 for tabling in the National Assembly. The two instruments were tabled on 11th September, 2019, and committed to the Committee on Delegated Legislation for consideration.

The Committee held a meeting on 3rd October, 2019 to consider the Legal Notices from the Registrar of Political Parties. The Committee took into account the previous consultations with the Registrar held on 14th June, 2018 and 30th November, 2018 pursuant to section 16 of the Statutory Instruments Act, 2013.

After careful consideration, the Committee approved the Political Parties (Registration) Regulations, 2019 as it complied with all relevant laws.

The Political Parties (Funding) Regulations, 2019 on the other hand generally complied with all the relevant considerations contained in section 13 of the Statutory Instruments Act except for Regulation 18 which the Committee resolved to annul because it offends sections 13 (m) of the SI Act as it inappropriately delegates legislative powers to the Registrar by giving the Registrar power to set general guidelines, conditions and requirements for the management of the Fund. Guidelines are statutory instruments within the meaning of section 2 of the Statutory Instruments Act and if made by the Registrar, must be submitted to the National Assembly to be considered by the Committee.

In conclusion, I wish to most sincerely thank the Speaker and the Office of the Clerk of the National Assembly for the invaluable support accorded to the Committee in the discharge of its mandate.

On behalf of the Members of the Select Committee on Delegated Legislation and pursuant to section 15 (1) of the Statutory Instruments Act, 2013 and Standing Order 210 (4) (b), it is my pleasure and duty to present to the House the Committee's Report on the Consideration of the Political Parties (Funding) Regulations (Legal Notice No.143 of 2019).

HON. GLADYS BOSS SHOLLEI CBS MP

  - f) gives retrospective effect to any of the provision in respect to which the Constitution does not expressly give any such power;
  - g) it involves expenditure from the consolidated fund or other public revenues;
  - h) is defective in its drafting or for any reason form or part of the statutory instrument calls for any elucidation;
  - i) appears to make some unusual or unexpected use of the power conferred by the Constitution or the Act pursuant to which it is made;
  - j) appears to have had unjustifiable delay in its publication or laying before Parliament;
  - k) makes rights, liberties or obligations unduly dependent upon non-renewable decisions;
  - l) makes rights, liberties or obligations unduly dependent insufficiently defined administrative powers;
  - m) inappropriately delegates legislative powers;
  - n) imposes a fine, imprisonment or other penalty without express authority having been provided for in the enabling legislation;
  - o) appears for any reason to infringe on the rule of law;

2.0 CONSIDERATION OF THE POLITICAL PARTIES (FUNDING) REGULATIONS, 2019

2.1 Introduction

5. The Political Parties (Funding) Regulations, 2019 were made by the Registrar of Political Parties pursuant to section 49 of the Political Parties Act, 2011. The Regulations are vital in giving effect and enhancing implementation of the Political Parties Act, 2011.
6. The Regulations were published in the Kenya Gazette vide Legal Notice No. 143 of 2019 on 9th August, 2019, received by the Clerk of National Assembly on 29th August, 2019 and tabled in the House on 11th September, 2019.

2.2 Purpose of the Regulations

7. The Regulations are intended to enforce Part III of the Political Parties Act, 2011, section 23 of which establishes the Political Parties Fund to be administered by the Registrar of Political Parties.
8. The Regulations seek to revoke the Political Parties (Funding) Regulations, 2009 (Legal Notice 169 of 2009).
9. The Regulations prescribe the duties of the Registrar of Political Parties in the management, accounting and application of the Fund.
10. The Regulations further provide structured guidelines for the process of application of the Fund by qualified political parties, processing of the applications, allocation and disbursement of the monies from the Fund by the Registrar.
11. The Regulations also prescribe the guidelines for accounting and reporting by the Registrar and political parties. It also provides for the auditing of the Fund in accordance with the Public Audit Act.
12. Regulation 18 requires the Registrar to set guidelines regarding the disbursement of monies from the Fund to any political party, programme or activity, the rules and procedures related to the disbursement and management of funds.

2.3 Scrutiny of the Instrument

13. Pursuant to section 16 of the Act, the Committee held pre-publication consultations with the regulation making authority on 14th June, 2018 and 30th November, 2018 where the Registrar of Political Parties presented the draft Regulations to the Committee and responded adequately to all concerns raised by the Committee Members.
14. With the Regulations having been published on 9th August, 2019 and committed to the Committee on 11th September, 2019 for scrutiny, the Committee scheduled the business on 3rd October, 2019. The Committee took into consideration the pre-publication consultations held with the Office of the Registrar and observed as hereunder –

3.0 COMMITTEE OBSERVATIONS AND GROUNDS FOR RECOMMENDING PART-ANNULMENT

15. The Committee observed THAT –

(i) Statutory Timelines– section 11 of the SI Act: The Regulations were submitted to the National Assembly within the statutory timelines contemplated under section 11(1) of the Statutory Instruments Act having been published on the 9th of August, 2019, received by the Clerk of National Assembly on the 28th of August, 2019 and tabled on the 11th of September, 2019.

(ii) Public Participation– section 5, 5A of the SI Act: Articles 10 and 118 of the Constitution, section 5, 5A and the Schedule to the Act and Standing Order 210 of the National Assembly Standing Orders require the regulation –making authority to conduct public participation and sufficient consultation with the stakeholders and persons likely to be affected by the regulations. The outcomes of such consultations are to be indicated within the explanatory memorandum in detail.

The regulation making authority demonstrated to the Committee that adequate public consultations were undertaken. The following key stakeholder were consulted: Political Parties, the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission, the Kenya Law Reform Commission, the Judiciary, the Political Parties Dispute Tribunal, the Office of the Attorney General, the National Gender and Equality Commission and the Kenya National Commission on Human Rights. A total of sixteen stakeholder forums were held.

(iii) Regulatory Impact Statement – sections 6, 7 and 8 of SI Act: The Political Parties (Funding) Regulations, 2019 do not require a Regulatory Impact Statement since they are intended to make provisions for the structured guidelines for the management, the application and disbursements of the Political Parties Fund established under section 23 of the Political Parties Act.

(iv) Inappropriate Delegation of Powers – section 13 (m) of SI Act: Regulation 18 inappropriately delegates legislative powers to the Registrar, giving the Registrar power to set general guidelines, conditions and requirements for the management of the Fund.

Guidelines are statutory instruments within the meaning of section 2 of the Statutory Instruments Act and if made by the Registrar, must be submitted to the National Assembly to be considered by the Committee. This is in contravention of section 13(m) of the Statutory Instruments Act which requires the Committee during scrutiny to check whether the Regulations inappropriately delegates legislative powers.

(v) Conferring with the Committee – section 16 of the SI Act: The regulation making authority conferred with the Committee pursuant to section 16 of the Act on 14th June, 2018 and 30th November, 2018 prior to publishing the Regulations.

4.0 COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION

16. Having examined the Political Parties (Funding) Regulations, 2019 against the Constitution of Kenya, the Interpretations and General Provisions Act (Cap 2) Laws of Kenya, the Political Parties Act, 2011 and the Statutory Instruments Act (No 23 of 2013), and pursuant to Standing Order 210 (4) (b) and section 15 (1) of the Statutory Instruments Act, the Committee does not accede to a part of the Political Parties (Funding) Regulations, 2019 and recommends that the House annuls Regulation 18 of the Political Parties (Funding) Regulations, 2019 as it inappropriately delegates legislative powers to the Registrar of Political Parties to set general guidelines, conditions and requirements for the management of the Fund, contrary to section 13 (m) of the Statutory Instruments Act.

Committee Observations

The Committee observed THAT –

1. The Regulations were submitted to the National Assembly within the statutory timeline contemplated under section 11(1) of the Statutory Instruments Act having been published on the 9th of August, 2019, received by the Clerk of National Assembly on the 28th of August, 2019 and tabled on the 11th of September, 2019.
2. Regulation 18 inappropriately delegates legislative powers to the Registrar, giving the Registrar power to set general guidelines, conditions and requirements for the management of the Fund. Guidelines are Statutory Instruments within the meaning of section 2 of the Statutory Instruments Act and if made by the Registrar, must be submitted to the National Assembly to be considered by the Committee. This is contravention of section 13(m) of the Statutory Instruments Act which requires the Committee during scrutiny to check whether the Regulations inappropriately delegates legislative powers.
3. On conferring with the Committee, pursuant to section 16 of the Act, the Committee held a meeting with the regulation making authority in December 2018 where the draft Regulations were presented to the Committee. The Registrar of Political Parties informed the Committee that the Office of the Registrar undertook and continues to undertake continuous consultation with key stakeholders since the enactment of the Political Parties Act 2011. A total of sixteen stakeholder forums were held.
4. legislative powers to the Registrar to set general guidelines, conditions and requirements for the management of the Fund.

The decision for part-annulment was proposed by Hon. George Murugara, MP, and seconded by Hon. Martha Wangari, MP for the aforementioned reasons.

PART II

1. Purpose of the Statutory Instrument

The Political Parties (Funding) Regulations is intended to enforce Part III of the Political Parties Act, 2011, Section 23 of which establishes the Political Parties Fund to be administered by the Registrar. This instrument provides for the structured guidelines for the management, purpose of the fund as well as the process of application of the funds and other matters connected thereto.

The Regulations are divided into five parts –

Part I – Preliminary

Part II – Administration and Management

Part III – Funding of political parties

Part IV – Accounting and Reporting

Part V – General Provisions

2. Legislative Context

Pursuant to the promulgation of the Constitution in 2010, Parliament was mandated to enact legislation to govern political parties under Article 92 of the same. The Political Parties Act, 2011 therefore came into effect in November 2011 to govern the registration, regulation and funding of political parties and for connected purposes. The proposed regulations are vital to give effect and enhance implementation of the Political Parties Act, 2011.

3. Policy Background

The Political Parties Act, 2011 repealed the Political Parties Act, 2007. However the regulations subsisting at the time continued to be in operation. The regulations enacted under the former Act have been in operation with alterations, adaptations and qualifications to bring it into conformity with the Constitution and the Political Parties Act, 2011. However, there is need to legislate the alterations hence informing the drafting of the proposed regulations. The proposed regulations provide precise procedures for implementation of the Act. The regulation was developed following various consultative meetings with fully registered political parties and stakeholders where the need to have the regulation was underscored.

4. Consultation Outcome

The consultation process has taken place since the enactment of the parent Act in 2011, with key stakeholders being the political parties, Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission, Kenya Law Reform Commission, The Judiciary, The Political Parties Dispute Tribunal, the Office of the Attorney General, the National Gender and Equality Commission and Kenya National Commission on Human Rights. There have been a total of sixteen stakeholder forums held with the final one held on 30th August 2016. All stakeholder recommendations were consolidated and drafters from the Office of the Attorney General and Kenya Law Reform Commission came up with initial draft regulations. The Office of the Registrar of Political Parties then tabled the regulations before the Parliamentary Committee on Delegated legislation in September 2016 where the members of the Committee approved the Regulations.

5. Guidance

The ORPP has developed and published simplified versions of the Act and Regulation in the form of manuals which have been disseminated to all political parties, key stakeholders and the general public.

6. Impact

6.1 Impact on fundamental rights and freedoms

This regulation will enhance the rights of citizens to make political choices stipulated under Article 38 of the Constitution.

6.2 On private sector

It will be a long term benefit to the private sector since the political environment will be effectively regulated and fair to promote peace during the electoral cycle. This will enhance achievement of the Kenya Vision 2030 Political objectives.

6.3 Public sector

The Kenyan citizenry will be aware of their political rights, the management of political parties and the importance of political parties in promoting democracy.

7. Monitoring and Review

The Office of the Registrar of Political Parties will undertake continuous monitoring and evaluation in line with the mandate conferred to the Office vide Section 34 of the Political Parties Act, 2011.
